June 13th, 2024

On June 13th, Low Life Barrel House hosted Next Gen Thirsty Thursday, to provide a casual networking opportunity to the Next Genners. Attendees enjoyed a spread of sliders, wraps and veggies chips alongside Low Life's in house beer, cider and wine.

Jessica LoRusso led a session on effective networking, offering practical advice on professionalism and confidence in both professional and personal settings. Attendees gained insights into behaviors that convey credibility and competence.
